

TOP TECH

MENTOR/MENTEE COMPETITION

Ranken Technical College, St. Louis, MO
September 28, 2019*

Who

- Mentee must have been in a career and technical post-secondary program within the last 24 months. Have 3-4 teams committed.

How

- Companies/shops with mentoring programs enter their mentor/mentee team to compete against other companies/shops within the industry
- Mentor/mentee teams compete on competencies industry has deemed necessary for an entry-level technician
- One day event at a technical college (Will need to set-up 2 days prior.)

Cash Prizes

- Winners of the competition will receive:
 - 1st $2500 each team member
 - 2nd $1000 each team member
 - 3rd $500 each team member

Industry Participation (as of 4.12.19)

- Caliber Collision
- George Arrants Enterprises
- Gerber Collision & Glass
- I-CAR
- I-CAR St. Louis Committee
- Performance Sales Solutions
- Ranken Technical College
- S/P2
- Saint-Gobain Abrasives
- State Farm Insurance

Sponsors

For more information, contact: Christen Battaglia
at christen.battaglia@ed-foundation.org

WHY MENTOR?
Those who receive mentoring are 77% more likely to stay in their job.

– Spherion Emerging Workforce Study

Goals:

- ✓ Improve employee retention
- ✓ To develop the next generation of mentors.
- ✓ Encourage more mentoring programs within the industry (collision-focused to start)
- ✓ To foster industry relationships with in collision programs
- ✓ Recognize mentors
- ✓ Mentoring Model